

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, Aug. 24.—The salmon fishing season on the Columbia ends tomorrow. So far as the actual catch was concerned, the end of the season might as well have come a week or two earlier, for the product for several weeks back has been very light. From this time on the local market will have to depend upon the Sound and other Northern sections for its salmon supply. There were no changes in fish prices today.

A report on the potato crop of Oregon spuds by a local dealer from a San Francisco jobber predicts a moderately good market there this fall and winter for Oregon potatoes.
